Chapter 1 by Olive H.

13 year old Lea Sanali loved her home. She lived by the sea with her parents, and since she loved to swim, it was paradise for her.

But there was one problem. Whenever Lea stepped into the water, something strange happened. Her legs bound together, and then turned green, and she grew scales and a fin.

Lea told no one, not even her parents, of these strange happenings, for she feared that people would judge or think badly of her. But one day, something much, much worse happened.

Chapter 2 by Wonder Story - In College   🖉

Lea was swimming by herself in the sea. She could see and breathe clearly underwater and had bought a swim top that was the same shade of green as her tail.

All of a sudden, multiple bubbles surrounded her and she couldn't see clearly any more. Bit within the same instant, the bubbles died away and Lea was in a palace, hovering in front of a large throne. On the throne sat a large merman with a shining blue tail, flowing light green hair and a 3-pronged fork in his hand. Next to him was another throne. Upon it was a beautiful mermaid with a sparkly purple tail, a slender build, and flowing golden tresses.

The merman boomed, "Lea Sanali, you are in the presence of King Triton and Queen Serane, rulers of the Mer-Kingdom. It is time for you to take your rightful place among the merpeople."
